EDITORIAL

“WE HAVE A GREAT EDITORIAL TEAM AND ARE VERY EXPERIENCED IN WORKING CLOSELY WITH AUTHORS TO STRUCTURE AND SHAPE THEIR BOOKS. THE MAJORITY OF AUTHORS THAT WE WORK WITH ARE NOT PROFESSIONAL WRITERS; THEY HAVE A HUGE AMOUNT OF KNOWLEDGE ABOUT THEIR SUBJECT, BUT DON’T NECESSARILY HAVE THE EXPERIENCE OF STRUCTURING AND PRESENTING THIS IN BOOK FORM. THIS IS WHERE WE CAN HELP.”

MYLES HUNT, MANAGING DIRECTOR

Whatever you are writing about, you can be assured that the Harriman House team will support you to deliver a quality book in a timely and effective way.

We recognise the value of getting our authors involved at an early stage in the process and we thoroughly enjoy working with them to plan their books. We provide unrivalled support during the writing process and a sharp editing and development procedure once the draft manuscript has been submitted.

If you have any questions regarding the editorial process for your book, or to request manuscript submission guidelines, please contact Chris Parker at:
chris.parker@harriman-house.com

SALES AND DISTRIBUTION

“THE EBOOK EDITIONS OF OUR TITLES ARE MADE AVAILABLE ON ALL THE MAJOR EBOOK PLATFORMS INCLUDING AMAZON KINDLE, KOBO, GOOGLE PLAY AND THE APPLE IBOOKSTORE - WHERE WE WERE ONE OF THE FIRST UK INDEPENDENTS TO HAVE OUR EBOOKS AVAILABLE.”

MYLES HUNT, MANAGING DIRECTOR

Providing accurate bibliographic information well in advance of publication is crucial to the publishing industry and as soon as your book is registered we are able to achieve pre-orders whatever the format.

PRINT EDITIONS

We market and sell our titles through all the major bookshops both on- and offline, selling through key resellers such as Amazon, Waterstones, Foyles and WHSmith Travel plus major wholesalers, library suppliers and end-user channels. We deal directly with the head office buyers in most cases and also have freelance sales representatives targeting a number of specialist stores.

DIRECT SALES

We have an active direct selling operation through our own website and network of affiliates. We also look to run direct promotions with publications and websites – meaning not only a higher margin on the sale, but also the ability to connect directly with the book buyer. As part of this we can also make it very easy for you to promote and sell your book from your own website or blog.

As well as the traditional trade routes we actively target corporate and non-traditional trade channels and have a good level of success in this area in terms of bulk sales and the creation of bespoke editions of titles both in print and eBook form.

If you have any questions regarding sales and distribution, to discuss bulk sales or to find out more about our custom publishing capability, please contact Rebecca Blackman at: rebecca.blackman@harriman-house.com

EBOOKS

We publish all our titles simultaneously in print and eBook form and make these available on all the major platforms and direct from our websites. As part of this we manage all aspects of the creation of the ebook files for all the various formats used by the different ebook platforms and can also add in multi-media and dynamic elements where relevant. We also offer the unique facility whereby buyers of our print editions are able to obtain a free eBook edition of the title by registering with us.

We have recently launched a range of eBook-only titles – our ‘Instants’ range – where we look to publish short-form works that focus on a particular topic. Some of the launch titles include: Why Financial Markets Rise Slowly but Fall Sharply by Paul V. Azzopardi, Trading Triangles by John Piper, A Broom Cupboard of One’s Own by Ross Clark and Kicking the Property Ladder by Robin Bennett.

The eBook market is growing very rapidly. We sell eBooks to the specialist trade, academics and libraries through a range of eBook online retailers. Some of our key reselling partners include: Amazon; Apple; aNobii/eBooks by Sainsbury’s; Barnes & Noble; Books24x7/Skillsoft; eBooks.com; ebrary; EBSCO; Firsty Fish; Gardners; Google Play; Ingram MyLibrary; Kobo; NetLibrary; OverDrive/Safari. In addition to the above, we also feed through to a wide range of online retail and mass market channels including Tesco, WHSmith, Waterstones and Bilbary amongst others.

To find out more about our eBook formats and channels, please contact Craig Pearce at: craig.pearce@harriman-house.com

MARKETING AND PUBLICITY

“WE THOROUGHLY ENJOY PARTNERING WITH OUR AUTHORS. WE USE AUTHOR POWER AND SOCIAL MEDIA ADVOCACY TO ENRICH OUR MARKETING AND PUBLICITY INITIATIVES.”

REBECCA BLACKMAN, HEAD OF MARKETING AND PR

We work closely with our authors to develop and execute an individual book marketing plan, targeting existing and prospective book buyers at both pre- and post-publication phases. We integrate social media into our entire marketing strategy.

We carry out highly targeted email campaigns on a weekly basis with a direct link to our online catalogue and ordering service for both print and eBook formats. These email blasts reach targeted individuals from our customer database. Your book will be featured in these campaigns where appropriate.

We encourage and support our authors to make their own online videos, podcasts or audio streams. These can be based on the book content or a collection of short, related themes or interviews. We feature these on our website via our YouTube channel and we also help authors to upload their own.

If you wish to have a book trailer but need a helping hand to create it, please get in touch with Chris Parker, at chris.parker@harriman-house.com and he will be keen to help you with a recording either at our offices in Petersfield, Hampshire, or at another location if you prefer.

PUBLICITY

“WE ENCOURAGE OUR AUTHORS TO WRITE ARTICLES AND OFFER OPINION PIECES ON TOPICS RELATED TO THE CORE THEMES OF THEIR BOOKS AS THIS CAN SIGNIFICANTLY ENHANCE THE MEDIA WE ACHIEVE.”

MYLES HUNT, MANAGING DIRECTOR

To gain publicity for your book, we compile a list of potential reviewers, journalists and bloggers using our extensive review database of media contacts and thought leaders. Typically, this includes newspapers, periodicals, independent reviewers and specialist television/radio programmes most likely to be interested in your book. We send press releases and also negotiate regular Reader Offer deals with specialist media.

Why not talk to Rebecca Blackman about the marketing and publicity of your book? She is very open to ideas and can be reached at: rebecca.blackman@harriman-house.com

EVENTS

Each year we attend a number of conferences. Your book will be promoted at events where appropriate. If you are speaking at an event or planning to submit a paper, please let us know and we will be happy to prepare flyers, display material and sample copies of your book.

RIGHTS AND LICENSING

We have an active foreign rights programme and look to sell foreign language and territorial rights where possible and relevant. This generates extra income and extends the reach of authors' books. The foreign publisher is responsible for all aspects of the translated version. Terms and conditions vary.

To discuss rights and licensing issues, please email Suzanne Tull at:
suzanne.tull@harriman-house.com

FURTHER PROJECTS

We like to develop a good and long-lasting partnership with our authors, both on further books and wherever possible on other projects such as e-newsletters, apps and websites. We have experience with both the creation and management of online and video content and the development of offline training, so we can provide other services and support on various ventures as required.

If you would like to discuss any of our products or services in more detail or would like quotes on any of the above please do not hesitate to contact us. We will be happy to discuss your requirements and provide sample copies of products and create mock ups or demo products where appropriate. To find out more, please talk to Suzanne Tull at:

CORPORATE SOLUTIONS

Alongside our book products we also work closely with corporate clients to provide information solutions. These can include both the provision of the delivery platform and the content itself, from video and online content to bespoke books and custom eBooks.

As a small dynamic company we offer unrivalled speed, flexibility and expertise in delivering exceptional products and services.
